Procedure for and Effect of Participation. An Eligible Employee may become a Participant in the Plan by executing Enrollment Forms and Compensation Reduction Agreements, and by providing such data as are reasonably required by the Employer as a condition of such participation. The Compensation Reduction Agreement shall be governed by Section 4 of this document. By becoming a Participant, each individual shall for all purposes be deemed conclusively to have consented to the provisions of the Plan and all amendments thereto.

Participant may elect to continue his/her Plan elections, including elections by covered dependents, for the upcoming Plan Year by simply so stating on the Enrollment Form for that upcoming Plan Year.

Cessation of Participation. A Participant will cease to be a Participant as of the earlier of:

- A. the date on which the Plan terminates;
- B. the date on which he ceases to be an Eligible Employee; or
- C. the date on which he fails to make a contribution required under the terms of the Plan.
- D. the date on which a Participating Employer terminates its participation in the Plan.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the payment of Benefits with respect to claims arising prior to the Participant’s termination of participation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a former Participant who continues to receive Compensation from the Employer shall remain a Participant for all purposes until such Compensation ceases.

Recommencement of Participation. A former active Participant will recommence participation as of his date of reemployment. A reemployed former active Participant may not make a new election which is effective during the Plan Year in which he separated from service with the Employer.

FMLA Leave. A Participant who takes an unpaid leave of absence under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (“FMLA Leave”) may revoke his election to participate under any group health insurance benefit offered under this Plan, for the remainder of the Plan Year in which such leave of absence commences.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Participant on FMLA Leave shall have no greater rights to benefits for the remainder of the Plan Year in which the FMLA Leave commences as other Plan Participants.

Section III

Benefits And Benefit Rules

Benefit Plans.

This Plan contains the Qualified Benefits of: (1) Premium Conversion Plan, and (2) Health Savings Account (HSA) Contribution Plan pursuant to Code Section 223 and Section 125(d)(2)(D).

Premium Conversion Plan

The Premium Conversion Plan included in this Flexible Benefit Plan provides tax-free reimbursement from the Benefit Credits established by the Employer from the Participant's Compensation Reduction account for the costs or premiums charged under the various insurance plan(s) sponsored by 4HG Source, LLC, the Employer.

Benefit Credits. There shall be credited to each Participant's Reimbursement Account those Benefit Credits that correspond to the Participant's Compensation reduction amounts under Section 4. Such contributions shall not exceed the amounts set forth on Schedule C attached hereto, as revised by the Employer from time to time. The Participant's Benefit Credits shall be credited when the Participant's Compensation is reduced, pursuant to the Compensation Reduction Agreement then in effect. The Benefit Credits shall be allocated in accordance with the Benefits the Participant has designated pursuant to this section. The amount of Benefits actually provided to or for the benefit of any Participant shall be a charge to the balance of his Reimbursement Account.

Election of Benefits. Each Eligible Employee shall submit to the Employer before the close of the Enrollment Period for each Plan Year, or at other designated times, a written statement identifying the Benefits to be provided by the Employer to the Eligible Employee, and the portion of the Eligible Employee's anticipated Benefit Credits for the Plan Year which may be applied to provide each Benefit. If the Participant's Benefit Credits actually exceed the sum of amounts allocated to provide Qualified Benefits available under the Plan, the Participant shall be deemed to have allocated such excess to the provision of additional cash Compensation. Each election under this Section 3 may be modified by the Employer to the extent required to enable the Plan, and payments hereunder, to satisfy the requirements of section 125 of the Code.

Health Savings Account (HSA) Contributions

An Eligible Employee who is enrolled in an HSA-compatible High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) sponsored by the Employer may elect to make pre-tax salary reduction contributions to an HSA established in accordance with Code Section 223. Total annual contributions from all sources (employer and employee) shall not exceed the statutory limits established under Section 223(b) for the applicable calendar year. HSA pre-tax salary reduction elections may be modified, initiated, or revoked prospectively at least once per month upon written notice to the Plan Administrator.

Benefit Rules

Nature of Participant Reimbursement Account. This plan provides no participant reimbursement accounts.

Provision of Benefits. The Employer shall provide such Benefits as the Participant has elected under the Plan, in such amounts as do not exceed the amount allocated to the provision of each such Benefit and subject to Employee Contributions. Such Benefits shall be subject to the provisions of any plan, Summary Plan Description, contract, or other arrangement setting forth the further terms and conditions pursuant to which such Benefits are provided, and any condition or restriction imposed by an insurance company providing any Benefit. To the extent the Participant has elected to receive additional cash Compensation (or is deemed to have made such an election), such Compensation shall be paid pursuant to this Section.

No amount shall be applied to provide Benefits under this Plan if such amount would exceed the balance of the Participant's Benefit Credits. However, the Employer, at its sole discretion, may defer and provide such Benefits with Employer contributions which cause the Participant's Benefit Credits to equal or exceed the amount required to provide such Benefits.

Revocation and Modification of Elections, and Change of Status.

- (a) Once an Eligible Employee has elected Benefits under the Plan and the Plan Year has begun, he may not amend or revoke his election of Benefits, unless there is a Change in Status or as may otherwise be permitted under this Section 3. The revocation of a designation of Benefits and election of new Benefits may be made by an Eligible Employee only if both the revocation of existing designation of Benefits and election of new Benefits are made on account of and consistent with the previously described Change in Status (except for coverage under COBRA as defined in Section 6, or similar state coverage).
- (b) Change in Coverage.
 - (1) If benefit coverage under this Plan is significantly curtailed (as determined by the Plan Administrator in its sole discretion) or ceases during a Plan Year, the Participant may revoke his or her election under the Plan with respect to that coverage and may prospectively elect coverage under another plan that provides similar coverage. Coverage under a benefit plan is deemed "significantly curtailed" only if there is an overall reduction in coverage provided to Participants under the Plan so as to constitute reduced coverage to Participants in general.
 - (2) If during a Plan Year the Plan adds or eliminates a benefit, an affected Participant may elect a newly-added benefit, or elect another benefit where a benefit option has been eliminated, prospectively on a pre-tax basis by making corresponding election changes with respect to coverage with respect to the benefit option providing similar coverage.
 - (3) A Participant may make a prospective election change that is on account of and corresponds with a change made under the plan of the employer of the Participant's spouse, former spouse, or Dependent's employer, if (a) the cafeteria plan or benefit plan in which the spouse, former Spouse, or Dependent participates permits its participants to make an election change that would be permitted under Treasury regulation Section 1.125-4(b) through (g); or (b) the Participant's plan year period of coverage is different from the plan year period of coverage under the cafeteria plan or benefit plan of the plan in which the Spouse, former Spouse or Dependent participates.
 - (4) If the Participant's share of the premium increases or decreases during a Plan Year by an insignificant amount, then the appropriate benefit elections of the Participant shall be prospectively increased or decreased to reflect such change. If the Participant's share of the premium increases significantly during a Plan Year, then the Participant may either make a corresponding prospective increase in his or her contributions or may revoke his or her election and in lieu thereof, receive coverage under another Plan option which provides similar coverage. Whether an increase or decrease in cost is significant or insignificant shall be determined by the Plan Administrator, on a reasonable and consistent basis, in accordance with prevailing IRS guidance, and based upon all the surrounding facts and circumstances (including, but not limited to, the dollar amount or percentage of the cost change).
 - (5) Where there is a judgment, decree, or order (including a qualified medical child support order described in ERISA Section 609) ("Order") resulting from a Participant's divorce, annulment, legal separation, or change in custody, (a) a Participant's election under an accident and health plan may be changed to provide coverage for a Dependent who is the Participant's child if the Order requires such coverage, and (b) coverage of the Dependent who is the Participant's child may be revoked or changed if the Order requires someone other than the Participant to provide such coverage.
 - (6) If a Participant, his spouse or Dependent who is enrolled in an accident or health plan of the employer becomes entitled to Medicare or Medicaid (other than coverage consisting solely of benefits under Section 1928 of the Social Security Act providing for pediatric vaccines), then the Participant may prospectively reduce or cancel the accident or health coverage of the person becoming entitled to Medicare or Medicaid. If a Participant, spouse or Dependent who has been entitled to Medicare or Medicaid loses eligibility for such coverage, then the Participant may prospectively elect to commence or increase the health or accident coverage.
 - (7) If a Participant, his spouse, or Dependent becomes eligible for accident or health coverage under COBRA (as defined herein) or similar health plan continuation coverage under state law, then the Participant may increase his election to pay for such coverage.
 - (8) If a Participant, his spouse or Dependent is entitled to special enrollment rights under a group health plan, as required by Code §9801(f) (i.e., HIPAA), then a Participant may revoke a prior election for coverage under a group health plan and make a new election, provided that the election corresponds with such special enrollment rights.
 - (9) Where the Participant takes leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the provisions of Section 3 shall apply.

A Participant entitled to make a new election under this Section 3 must do so within 30 days of the event described above. Any such election shall apply for the balance of the Plan Year in which the election is made unless a subsequent event (described in this Section 3) occurs.

Cash Payments. Any cash to be paid to a Participant with respect to any portion of the Benefit Credits (other than as Qualified Benefits) shall be added to his taxable Compensation and shall be paid to him during the Plan Year subject to any applicable wage withholding or similar taxes. Such payments shall not include interest from the date as of which the Benefit Credits were credited on the Participant's behalf to the date of payment. No Benefit under the Plan shall be paid in any manner that defers the receipt of Compensation beyond the last day of the Plan Year.

Forfeitures. If the total Qualified Benefits paid or reimbursed to a Participant with respect to any Plan Year are less than the Benefit Credits allocated to the provision of such Qualified Benefits, the unused portion shall be forfeited three months following an Employee's date of termination or three months after the end of the Plan Year, whichever is earlier. No Participant shall be entitled to carry over any unused Qualified Benefits to the succeeding Plan Year, or to reallocate the unused portion to any other Benefit, nor shall any Participant be entitled to receive any unused Qualified Benefits in the form of additional cash.

Reimbursements. Except as otherwise provided in any plan, contract or arrangement established to provide Benefits, reimbursement of Expenses shall be made at such time and in such amounts as shall be determined by the Employer in accordance with Treasury Regulations 1.125-2 Q&A 7(b)(2).

Nondiscrimination. Contributions and Benefits under the Plan shall not discriminate in favor of Highly Compensated Employees nor shall the aggregate cost of the Benefits provided to Key Employees exceed 25% of the aggregate of such cost for the Benefits provided to all Employees under the Plan. The Employer may limit or deny any Employee's Compensation Reduction Agreement to the extent necessary to avoid any such discrimination.

Insurance Contracts. Some or all of the Benefits provided under the Plan may, at the discretion of the Employer, be provided by the purchase of insurance contracts issued by one or more insurance companies, or health care service contracts issued by or provided through a health care service provider, qualified health maintenance organization, or preferred provider organization. Any dividends, retroactive rates, or other refunds which may become payable under any insurance or health care service contracts or benefit programs due to actuarial error in rate calculation shall be the property of and retained by the appropriate Participating Employer.

Benefit Costs

The cost of each Benefit shall be determined in a uniform manner according to the benefit option cost described on Schedule A, B and C attached hereto. Such costs are subject to change, at the discretion of the Employer, for any future Plan Year for current Participants and at any time prior to the commencement of participation for new Participants.

Termination of Employment. If an Eligible Employee separates from service with the Employer during a period in which he is covered under the Plan, the Employer may terminate the remaining portion of Benefits provided by the Plan. If a terminated Employee who has revoked coverage under the Plan is reemployed by the Employer, that said Employee shall be prohibited from making a new benefit election in the Plan Year for which the revocation was effective. However, the reemployed Employee may receive Benefits under the Plan in accordance with the election which was in effect prior to his termination of employment with the Employer. A terminated Employee shall be entitled to reimbursement for claims for Qualified Benefits incurred prior to his termination of employment, only if the Employee (or his estate) applies for such reimbursement on or before the 90th day following date of termination, but not later than the 90th day following the end of the Plan Year.

Employee Contributions. To the extent a Participant does not have sufficient Benefit Credits to pay for the Benefits selected, the Employer is authorized to withhold the additional amounts from a Participant's Compensation from the Employer to the extent required to pay for said Benefits. Further, the Employer may require that such withholdings be made on a post-tax basis.

Payment of Contributions While on FMLA Leave. A Participant who takes an unpaid leave of absence under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 ("FMLA Leave") and who elects to continue participation under this Plan shall be responsible for making the required contributions under the group health insurance plan offered under this Plan during the period of the FMLA Leave. The manner in which such payments are made shall be determined by the Plan Administrator in its sole discretion, as previously stated in Section 2 above.

Uniformed Service Under USERRA. A Participant who is absent from employment with the Employer on account of being in “uniformed service”, as that term is defined by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (“USERRA”), may elect to continue participation in the Plan. The coverage period shall extend for the lesser of 18 months or until the Participant fails to apply for reinstatement or to return to employment with the Employer. The Participant shall be responsible for making the required contributions under the Plan, during the period during which he or she is in “uniformed service”. The manner in which such payments are made shall be determined by the Plan Administrator. A Participant whose coverage under the group health insurance plan and/or the medical savings account portion of the Plan is terminated on account of his or her being in “uniformed service”, and is later reinstated, shall not be subject to a new exclusion or waiting period requirement imposed by such group health plan and/or medical savings account, provided that such requirements would not have been imposed if coverage had not been terminated as a result of the “uniformed service”.

Section IV

Contributions

Funding. The Benefits provided shall be paid by the Employee; provided, however, that the Employer's payments under the Plan shall be limited to such amounts of Compensation as a Participant elects to forego pursuant to a Compensation Reduction Agreement.

If any benefits of this Plan are insured by a third party insurer, those benefits will be paid by the insurer or its nominee, such as a third party administrator.

Execution of Agreements. Approximately 30 days prior to the beginning of the Plan Year, the Administrator shall provide a written election form, which shall include a Compensation Reduction Agreement to each Participant and to each other Employee who is expected to become an Eligible Employee by the first day of the first Plan Year, and all subsequent Plan Years. All Compensation Reduction Agreements entered into by Participants in the Plan shall be executed before the close of the Enrollment Period for the Plan Year for which such agreements will be effective or, in the case of Participants who were not eligible to participate in the Plan at the beginning of the Plan Year, before the first day of the pay period after the Entry Date on which they become eligible to participate in the Plan. Each Compensation Reduction Agreement shall remain effective throughout the Plan Year unless revoked or suspended by reason of any Participant's ceasing to be an Eligible Employee.

No Compensation Reduction Agreement may be revoked by any Participant during the Plan Year for which it is effective, except by reason of a family status change described herein. Any Participant who fails to execute appropriate agreements during the Enrollment Period shall be deemed to have elected to maintain his prior Plan Year's election for health options but will not be eligible for any Reimbursement Account. Any newly Eligible Employee who fails to execute appropriate agreements during the Enrollment Period to become a Participant shall be deemed to have elected cash Compensation to the extent permissible.

Amount of Compensation Reduction. The Compensation reduction amount shall be specified by the Eligible Employee in the Compensation Reduction Agreement. Such Compensation reduction shall not exceed the amount set forth on Schedule A, B and C attached hereto. The Compensation reduction amount shall be designated on a per pay basis, as indicated.

Crediting of Compensation Reduction Amounts. All Compensation reduction amounts shall be applied to reduce the Participant's Compensation for each pay period in as nearly equal amounts as the Employer deems practicable, except as the Employer shall otherwise determine. Compensation reduction amounts shall be credited to the Participant's Benefit Credits as of the end of the pay period to which such amount is attributable, provided, however, that no person's Compensation for any pay period shall be reduced by reason of a Compensation Reduction Agreement, nor shall any Benefit Credits be credited by reason of such agreement, if such person is not an Eligible Employee on the date as of which such Compensation is otherwise payable.

Section V

For purposes of this Plan, the Employer shall serve as the Plan Administrator.

The Employer may, however, delegate any of its powers or duties under the Plan in writing to any person or entity. The delegate shall become the fiduciary for only that part of the administration which has been delegated by the Employer and any references to the Employer shall instead apply to the delegate. However, if the employer assigns any of the Employer's responsibility to an Employee, it will not be considered a delegation of Employer responsibility but rather how the Employer internally is assigning responsibility.

The Employer shall adopt such rules for administration of the Plan as it considers desirable, provided they do not conflict with the Plan, and may construe the Plan, correct defects, supply omissions and reconcile inconsistencies to the extent necessary to effectuate the Plan, and such action shall be conclusive. Liability of Administrative Personnel. Neither the Employer nor any of its Employees shall be liable for any loss due to an error or omission in administration of the Plan unless the loss is due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the party to be charged or is due to the failure of the party to be charged to exercise a fiduciary responsibility with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims.

Underlying Health Plan. Allied Funding Advantage - HSA Freedom Traditional Plan ($4,000 Deductible)

THE FOLLOWING DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT PLAN PARTICIPANTS MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW PLAN PARTICIPANTS CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The Protected Health Information (PHI) provisions of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1997 (HIPAA) and its regulations ("Rules") include privacy protections impacting group health plan medical or financial information that could identify an individual. Individually identifiable information is protected whether it is in electronic, paper or oral format. The HIPAA rules give individuals control over health and financial information related to their health care. PHI may be used only for limited purposes without consent, and in many situations only upon individual authorization. Regarding their own PHI, participants in this Plan have the right to:

- (1) object to using information;
- (2) gain access to information;
- (3) change information; and
- (4) obtain an accounting of any information disclosures.

An underlying principle of the rules is that the “minimum necessary” disclosure should be the standard when using or disclosing information in the normal course of treatment, payment or health plan operations.

Participants in this plan are guaranteed access to their PHI and have the right to: (1) copy and amend health information; (2) receive an accounting of PHI uses; and (3) receive notices of health plans' information practices. Individuals have the right to request that PHI use and disclosure be restricted even for treatment and payment purpose.

The Plan places restrictions on the Employer's use or disclosure of PHI received from the plan or an insurer. Insurers may determine what information will be available to the Plan.

The Plan will meet the minimum necessary uses and disclosures provisions of HIPAA for PHI. However, the minimum necessary provisions do not apply to the following:

- Disclosures to or request by a health care provider for treatment purposes;
- Disclosures to the individual who is the subject of the information;
- Uses or disclosures made based on an authorization requested by the individual;
- Uses or disclosures required for compliance with HIPAA's transaction standards (see 813);
- Disclosures to HHS when the rule requires the disclosure of information for enforcement purpose; and
- Uses or disclosures that are required by other laws.

Any uses or disclosures for which the covered entity has a valid authorization is exempt.

Marketing

The group health plan(s) and other covered entities, as defined by HIPAA, will not use or disclose PHI for marketing purposes without the individual's authorization, except for face-to-face communications with the individual or promotional gifts of nominal value.

Communications that are part of treatment or are about a plan's benefits, services or operations are excluded from the definition of marketing, even if they promote the use or sale of a service or product.

Specifically excluded from the definition of marketing communications about:

- Participating providers and health plans in a network, the services offered by a provider or the benefits covered by a health plan;
- Treatment of the individual; and
- Case management or care coordination for the individual, or directions or recommendations for alternative treatments, therapies, health care providers or settings of care to that individual.

This health plan is not engaging in marketing when it advises enrollees about other available health coverage that could enhance or substitute for existing health coverage. For example, if a child is about to age out of coverage under a family policy, the plan may send the family information about continuation coverage for the child. This exception does not extend to excepted benefits under HIPAA, such as accident-only policies or auto medical liability, nor to other lines of insurance.

It is not marketing for this plan to communicate about health-related products and services available only to plan enrollees or members that add value to but are not part of a plan of benefits. To qualify for this exclusion, the communication must meet two conditions:

- (1) It must be health-related. For example, offers of discounts for eyeglasses may be considered part of plan benefits. This exclusion appears to included wellness programs that offer incentives to adopt healthy lifestyle behaviors.
- (2) It must offer an added value of plan membership and not merely be a pass-through of a discount or item available to the public at large.

For marketing activities permitted by an authorization, if there is remuneration, the marketing material must state that the entity making the communication is being paid by another entity.

Underwriting

An insurer that receives protected group health plan information for underwriting, premium rating and other similar purpose – and that coverage is not placed with the insurer- cannot use or disclose the information for any purpose other than as required by law.

Verification

In any disclosure other than those allowing the individual to agree or object, verifying the identity of anyone requesting PHI who is not known to the health plan or other covered entity must first occur.

If disclosure is conditional on documentation or statements from the person seeking PHI, that documentation or statement must be obtained before the PHI can be disclosed.

Section VI

Continuation Of Coverage

In General. The following provisions shall apply to Benefits provided to Eligible Employees and their dependents under the Plan, but only to the extent that the Benefits selected pertain to health care and medical coverage. This coverage shall be continued pursuant to the provisions of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (P.L. 99-272) Title X (COBRA).

Continuation of Coverage. To the extent required by Section 6 above, a qualified beneficiary who would lose coverage under this Plan as a result of a qualifying event is entitled to elect continuation coverage within the election period under this Plan. Coverage provided under this provision is on a contributory basis. No evidence of good health will be required.

Except as otherwise specified in an election, any election by a qualified beneficiary who is a covered employee or spouse of the covered employee will be deemed to include an election for continuation coverage under this provision on behalf of any other qualified beneficiary who would lose coverage by reason of a qualifying event.

If this Plan provides a choice among the types of coverage under this Plan, each qualified beneficiary is entitled to make a separate selection among such types of coverage (i.e. single, family, etc.).

Type of Coverage. Continuation coverage under this provision is coverage which is identical to the coverage provided under this Plan to similarly situated beneficiaries under this Plan with respect to whom a qualifying event has not occurred as of the time coverage is being provided. If coverage under this Plan is modified for any group of similarly situated beneficiaries, the coverage shall also be modified in the same manner for all qualified beneficiaries under this Plan in connection with such group.

Coverage Period. The coverage under this provision will extend for at least the period beginning on the date of a qualifying event and ending not earlier than the earliest of the following:

- A. in the case of a terminated Employee (except for gross misconduct) or a covered Employee whose hours have been reduced, except as provided in B. and C. below, and his covered dependents, the date which is 18 months after the qualifying event;
- B. in the case of a qualified beneficiary disabled during the first 60 days following the covered Employee's termination (except for gross misconduct) the date which is 29 months after the qualifying event, provided the qualified beneficiary provides the Plan Administrator with notice of Social Security disability determination within 60 days of the disability determination and within 18 months of the qualifying event;
- C. in the case of a qualifying event which occurs during the 18-months after the date that a covered Employee is terminated (except for gross misconduct) or the date that a covered Employee's hours are reduced, for the covered dependents, the date which is 36 months after the date that a covered Employee is terminated (except for gross misconduct), or the date that a covered Employee's hours are reduced;
 - (1) for plan years commencing on or prior to June 30, 1997, in the case of a termination (except for gross misconduct) or reduction in hours of a covered Employee and that Employee's subsequent entitlement to Medicare while continuation coverage is in force for the qualified beneficiary, the date which is 36 months after the date of the covered Employee's entitlement to Medicare;
 - (2) for plan years commencing after June 30, 1997, in the case of a termination (except for gross misconduct) or reduction in hours of a covered employee that occurs less than 18 months before the covered employee becomes subject to Medicare, the date which is the close of the 36 month period beginning on the date the covered employee became entitled to Medicare.
- E. in the case of any qualifying event except as described in A., B., C. and D. above, the date which is 36 months after the date of the qualifying event;
- F. the date on which the Employer or a Participating Employer, if any, ceases to provide any group health plan to any Employee;
- G. the date on which the qualified beneficiary fails to make timely payment of the required contribution pursuant to this provision;
- H. the date on which the qualified beneficiary first becomes, after the date of the election, covered under any other group health plan as an employee or dependent, or otherwise becomes entitled to benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (Medicare). However, if the other group health plan has a preexisting condition limitation, coverage under the Plan will not cease while such preexisting condition limitation under the other group plan remains in effect (taking into account, for plan years commencing after June 30, 1997, prior creditable coverage under the portability rules of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996). In no event will coverage continue longer than the coverage period as set forth in this Section 6.4.

Contribution.

- A. A qualified beneficiary shall only be entitled to continuation coverage provided such qualified beneficiary pays the applicable premium required by the Employer or a participating Employer in full and in advance, except as provided in B. below. Such premium shall not exceed the requirements of applicable federal law. A qualified beneficiary may elect to pay such premium in monthly installments.
- B. Except as provided in C. below, the payment of any premium shall be considered to be timely if made within 30 days after the date due, or within such longer period of time as applies to or under this Plan.
- C. Notwithstanding A. and B. above, if an election is made after a qualifying event during the election period, this Plan will permit payment of the required premium for continuation coverage during the period preceding the election to be made within 45 days of the date of the election.

Notification by Qualified Beneficiary. Each covered Employee or qualified beneficiary must notify the Employer or a participating Employer of the occurrence of a divorce or legal separation of the covered Employee from such covered Employee's spouse, and/or the covered Employee's dependent child ceasing to be a dependent child under the terms of this Plan within 60 days after the date of such occurrence. This 60-day time limit shall only apply to those occurrences as described in this paragraph, which occurs after the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

Notification to Qualified Beneficiary.

The Employer or a participating Employer shall provide written notice to each covered Employee and spouse of such covered employee of his/her right to continuation coverage under this provision as required by federal law.

The Employer or a Participating Employer shall notify any qualified beneficiary of the right to elect continuation coverage under this provision as required by federal law. If the qualifying event is the divorce or legal separation of the covered Employee from the covered Employee's spouse or a dependent child ceasing to be a dependent child under the terms of this Plan, 4HG Source, LLC shall only be required to notify a qualified beneficiary of his/her right to elect continuation coverage if the covered Employee or the qualified beneficiary notifies 4HG Source, LLC of such qualifying event occurring after the date of the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 within 60 days after the date of such qualifying event.

Notification of the requirements of this provision to the spouse of a covered Employee shall be treated as notification to all other qualified beneficiaries residing with such spouse at the time notification is made.

Definitions. The italicized terms used in the text of this Section 6 are defined as follows:

"Dependents" means an individual who meets the definition of dependent under the Participating Employer provided health plan covering the Eligible Employee. For the purposes of the Medical Reimbursement Plan, if any, dependents will also include individuals who are dependents within the meaning of section 152(a) of the Code, and as defined in section 1 hereof.

No person shall be considered a dependent of more than one Employee. If both an Employee and an Employee's spouse are employed by the Employer or a participating Employer, then their dependent children may be covered by either spouse, but not by both.

"Election Period" means the 60-day period during which a qualified beneficiary who would lose coverage as a result of a qualifying event may elect continuation coverage. This 60-day period begins not later than the date of termination of coverage as a result of a qualifying event and ends not earlier than 60 days after the later of such date of termination of coverage or the receipt of notice of the right to elect continuation coverage under this Plan.

"Full-Time Student" means a dependent child who is enrolled in, regularly attends and is recognized by the Registrar of an accredited secondary school, college or university, institution for the training of registered nurses (R.N.), or any other accredited or licensed school for the minimum number of credit hours required by that institution in order to maintain Full-Time Student status.

"Medicare" means the Health Insurance for the Aged and Disabled Act, Title XVIII of Public Law 89-97, Social Security, as amended.

"Qualified Beneficiary" means an individual who, on the day before the qualifying event for a covered Employee, is a beneficiary under this Plan as the dependent (as defined in Section 1 hereof) of the covered Employee. In the case of the termination of a covered Employee (except by reason of such covered Employee's gross misconduct) or the reduction in hours of the covered Employee's employment, the term "qualified beneficiary" includes the covered Employee. Effective January 1, 1997, a child who is born to (or placed for adoption with) a Qualified Beneficiary who is a covered Employee during the Coverage Period shall also be a Qualified Beneficiary.

Exception - the term qualified beneficiary does not include an individual whose status as a covered Employee is attributable to a period in which such individual is a nonresident alien who received no earned income from the employer which constituted income from sources within the United States (within the meaning of Code section 911(d)(2) and section 861(a)(3)). If an individual is not a qualified beneficiary pursuant to this paragraph, a spouse or dependent child of such individual shall not be considered a qualified beneficiary by virtue of the relationship to such individual.

“Qualifying Event” means with respect to a covered Employee, any of the following events which, but for the continuation coverage under this provision, would result in the loss of coverage of a qualified beneficiary:

- (i) the death of the covered Employee;
- (ii) the termination (except by reason of such covered Employee’s gross misconduct) or reduction in hours of the covered employee’s employment;
- (iii) divorce or legal separation of the covered Employee from such covered Employee’s spouse, as herein defined.
- (iv) the covered Employee becoming entitled to benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (Medicare);
- (v) a dependent child who ceases to be a dependent child under the terms of this Plan.
- (vi) the Company’s filing for Chapter 11 reorganization, as it would affect retiree coverage.

“University/College” means an accredited institution listed in the current publication of accredited institutions of higher education.
